OCTOBER, 2009

Madison and Chatham Clubs Combine for Super Installation Ceremony and Banquet

For the first time, our club invited the Madison Kiwanis Club to meet with us and share our installation ceremony and dinner. Our thanks to Nancy Boucher for initiating this joint celebration on September 23. It resulted in a delegation of officers and members from Madison, encouraging us to think about new ways of sharing.

Lt Governor Joyce Garrow, of Parsippany, who presided over last year's installation ceremony, returned for this year's dinner, with the added challenge of creating a ceremony for officers of both clubs. She spoke with eloquence about the rewards of service, and our gratitude for those who volunteer to serve their communities.. She welcomed the new officers, including our Vice President, and took the continuing officers through the steps of advancing to their new tasks. She also acknowledged our new Board positions of Publicity Director and Editor, and our three new Directors for the Class of 2012 (see complete list on p.2). She then personally greeted each of the new officers and directors of the clubs, as they took part in our super installation ceremony.

Gov. Esposito Brings A Gov.-Elect Banner

New District Governor Mark Esposito, of the Winslow Twp. Club, presented the banner in acknowledgement of the new position now held by our member, Marc Litwack, former Lt. Governor and District Treasurer. He spoke warmly of his friendship with Marc, and his admiration for the many successful experiences Marc had with Sponsored Youth clubs as a student, and over the years as a member of the NJ District Kiwanis team of leaders. He concluded by extolling the many skills that Marc will bring to his new leadership team, calling them invaluable.

President Rich Behling Sets Three Goals

Our newly installed President complimented Immediate Past President Doug Bryant on a successful year, and praised him for overseeing the installation of eight new members. He then outlined three goals for the coming year: 1. Ask all members to increase their involvement with the club by helping with a project "that is new to you"; 2. Invite a friend to a club activity, in order to build some interest, prior to extending an invitation for membership; 3. "Let's have fun together, for it will strengthen our membership."

John Stockly, Friend and Kiwanian, a Compassionate Man

“He would rather save lives than take them”, a family member, speaking at the September 14 memorial service at St. Paul’s in Chatham.

John enlisted in the American Field Service early in WWII, and served as an ambulance driver with the British army in Africa. He almost died carrying wounded German soldiers. A Chatham resident since '61, he has long been a loyal member of the Chatham Emergency Squad.

He was a history buff, a photographer, and a great story teller, His children can all attest to that. John also loved to travel. He and Betty, his bride of 58 years, enjoyed our Kiwanis-sponsored tour of the Mississippi on the American Queen in 2007. He died on September 9 at 86. John will be remembered for his friendship, his caring, and his sincerity. Photo courtesy Betsy (Stockly) Callahan

Sponsored Youth— September 9, First Meeting for Key Club

Our Kiwanis Club was represented by Doug Bryant, Rich Behling and Ron Whalin

Club Officers: Treas- Nathalie Ivers, Editor- Caley Taylor, Rec.Sec- Annie Monson, Cor.Sec- Christina Kim, VP- Meeghan Murray, Pres-, Jenny Barrett

Doug spoke to the Key Club members and described the rewards of community service, the opportunities to learn leadership skills through training, and the fun of meeting and working with students from other schools. Faculty advisors Rich Yar and Kiera Acri described the club to the newcomers, and mentioned projects that need volunteers. The club officers then introduced themselves and told how their work contributes to the success of the club. Betty Anne Keat is our Key Club Advisor, and she welcome visits by other Kiwanians to the Key Club meetings. A few Kiwanis members also attend the Key Club meetings so their members may get to know more about our club and its members.. Photo by Kiera Acri

Fundraising for Community Service

Aumn Harvest Fair: A helpful first for our club, and good venture for the church.

The September 26 Fair was an innovation for Chatham United Methodists, for it offered booth space for local individuals and non-profits. With a mix of cooperating weather, the aroma of hot foods and the sounds of music, the event attracted enough patrons to buy our supermarket certificates, Pasta Dinner tickets and Holiday Nuts. Helping with our Saturday Sales were Nancy Boucher, Mary Anne Maloney, Doug Bryant, Dave Pike and Rich Behling. Photo, Bill Williams

The Paper Gang Also Raises Funds.

Dick Hinderliter

August 17, former member Dick Hinderliter drops in to help with recycling.

The Monday morning recycling crew welcomed Dick, who had traveled from N. Kansas City to visit friends in the Chatham area. Later, over coffee, he told us that he had brought some of our traditions to the Kiwanis Club of North Kansas City, including recycling and a monthly newsletter. On September 17, our recycle chair, Dick Ligertwood, issued his report for 2009. In the past 12 months, we have filled 4 containers of papers, averaging 10 tons each, for Great Northern Recycling. For this we received $904.80. However, the price has now risen to $40. per ton, so receipts should rise in the future.

NJ Clean Communities Project
September 16, Shepard Kollock Park Cleanup
Leads to Fascinating Historical Discoveries.

After a few quarterly cleanup sessions in the area of Ogden St. and the Borough Recycling Center, the Director of Public Works, Bob Venezia, asked us to switch to the Shepard Kollock Park, located between Parrot Mill Road and the Passaic River. Gary Arnesen, project chair, was happy to share his enthusiasm about the good turnout of volunteers.

As they drove from Powder Mill Rd. to Henderson Rd. and the parking area, those who were new to the park were impressed by the large grassed recreation area. It is used for many sports, including soccer, lacrosse, baseball (and probably kite flying), At the north end, near the parking area, is a baseball backstop, and near it are display boards and plaques, containing stories of important people and events in the history of the area. Including Parrott and Kollock..

Around 1850 George Parrott built a grist (flour) mill between his mill pond and the river. In recent years it was covered over to make the park, with only Parrott Mill Road remaining. The park was named after a Revolutionary hero, Shepard Kollock, whose print shop was located where 55 Main St. is now. As a First Lieutenant in the Second Continental Artillery, he had fought in Trenton and Monmouth and spent time at Valley Forge. When George Washington recommended that he be authorized to create a "camp press" to counter the 4 pro-British propaganda of some Loyalist printers, his strong voice for independence earned him the reputation of "Editor for Freedom".

Our cleanup project started at 9:AM, when orange litter bags were distributed. We hiked south, along the edge of the woods, until the first trail appeared. It was one of many that had been designed and laid out by Boy Scouts, working on their awards and badges for advancement in rank. As we walked toward the river, collecting glass, metal, plastic and other trash, more trails and trash were sighted, with the litter often protected by tough brambles and prickles. We continued along near the river, sometimes removing cans and bottles half buried in the mud.

Finally, we came upon graffiti-covered concrete structures that were remnants of the old trolley line that once ran from Millburn and Summit, through Chatham and Madison, to Morristown by way of Park Avenue. As we walked back to the parking area, we stopped at a memorial plaque, erected last year in honor and memory of Bob Thompson, our Kiwanis President ('97-98) and longtime active member of the Environmental Commission. The plaque states that Bob's "tireless efforts to conserve and beautify have made Chatham a better place to live" *

In commenting on the environmental efforts of our club under the NJ Clean Communities program, former Chatham Mayor (and now President-Elect of our Club) Dick Plambeck, said that an important result of our cleanup of the Ogden St./Recycle Center area, and now the Shepard Kollock Park and river area, will be the prevention of hazardous waste from traveling with rain water runoff via roads and streams, to the river, which is used as a water source for a number of nearby communities.

*See Crier P.4, of May '08 for photos of plaque, Thomson family members & Environmental Commission members.
